

January 10, 2008

The Gold Coin - Ill Forks Restaurant - Austin, TX

Adam savored every bite of his meal. When Proprietor, Curtis Osmond stopped by the table to present Adam with a Gold Coin inscribed with, "Attitude is Everything... Luck Helps", Adam told Mr. Osmond that the dinner was the "Best food he had ever had!".

In order to understand the significance of the photo below, one must understand that Adam is very "selective" when it comes to food. Additionally, with patients who have experienced chemotherapy in the past, sometimes taste buds are affected and one's tastes change over time and it can be difficult to find meals that are appealing...

Curtis Osmond said, "I had a guest chase me out the door last night to tell me about this young man and the impact we made on his life as he battles cancer."

Adam is an incredible individual. To read about Adam and his life go to <http://www.adamcampfield.com/>.

Adam, after you finish your chemo treatment, please save a place on your schedule for your friends in Austin so you can go back for another dinner at Ill Forks!

Adam and Mr. Curtis Osmond, Proprietor of the Ill Forks Restaurant in Austin, TX